Details of Facilities are in Annexure 1

Detailed Rationale

The current rating continues to derive strength from Experienced promoter, Established relationship with UB group, Diversified clientele and Moderate financial risk profile. However, the rating strengths are constrained by Prices controlled by manufacturers, Exposure to regulatory changes, Withdrawal from the partners' capital and Competition from established brands.

Key Rating Sensitivities:

Press Release

Upward rating factor(s) – Substantial improvement in revenue and/or profitability margins leading to sustained improvement in debt coverage indicators may lead to a positive rating action.

Downward rating factor(s) - Any deterioration in revenue and/or profitability margin leading to deterioration in debt coverage indicators may lead to a negative rating action.

List of Key Rating Drivers with Detailed Description

Key Rating Strengths

Experienced promoter

The promoters of Tulsi Trading Corporation (TTC) have a long track record of more than four decades in the beer and liquor trading segment. Initially they were engaged in the distribution of beer of United Breweries Limited and IMFL brands of United Spirits Limited through Tulsi Trading Corporation (TTC). The business was originally started by Mr. Somjimal Fatnani, father of Mr. Ram Fatnani, in 1972. FY16 onwards, the business was split between RB and TTC. Mr. Shanker Fatnani and Mr. Bhagwan Fatnani are actively associated with the business having an experience of 3 decades now.

Established relationship with UB group

The firm has an established relationship with United Breweries Limited and United Spirits Limited and is the main distributor of their products in its area of operation i.e., Thane district. Both these suppliers together control 65-70% of market share in the liquor industry.

Diversified clientele

The firm has a diversified client base. As the firm is into trading business of beer and IMFL, it caters to many small wine and beer shops and clubs in Thane district. The top 5 customers of the company accounted for 8% of total sales in 2022 indicating a diversified customer base. Also, the firm has expanded its coverage of distributorship to new geographies in Thane district.

Moderate financial risk profile

Press Release

The debt of the company is mainly comprising of working capital limits and GECL loans. Therefore, the long-term debt to equity ratio stood at 0.18x in FY23 as against 0.25x in FY22. The overall gearing ratio improved stood in similar lines as that of previous years at 1.67x in FY23. Mainly elevated due to the higher closing balance of cash credit as on March 31, 2023. The TOL/TNW is moderate at 2.19x in in FY23 as against 1.82x in FY22 mainly elevated due to the higher closing balance of cash credit as on March 31, 2023.

Key Rating Weaknesses

Prices controlled by manufacturers

The firm does not have any control over the pricing of the products that it distributes. The prices are closely controlled by the manufacturers, United Breweries and United Spirits. Hence, TTC has limited flexibility in terms of pricing and consequently the margins earned by the firm are restricted to that extent.

Exposure to regulatory changes

TTC, like other players in the liquor business, remains exposed to changes in the legal and regulatory environment such as close monitoring of sales, revision of tax rates, ban on liquor sales, etc.

Withdrawal from the partners' capital

There is no restriction on the partners as regards to withdrawal of capital from the business. They may do so at any time and to any extent. Any withdrawals from the capital account is a key monitorable for the rating of the entity.

Competition from established brands

The firm is exposed to the risk of losing market share to brands that are competing against the brands of UB group. However, the prime position of the UB group brands in the market provides comfort.
