Detailed Rationale

The ratings assigned to the bank facilities of Vikas Ecotech Ltd. (VEL) have been placed under 'rating watch with negative implications' on account of the impending possible impact of search conducted by Income Tax department at the premises of the company. As such, Infomerics would engage with VEL's management to gain better understanding of exact implications of the search conducted by Income Tax department on the credit profile of the company. Pending greater clarity on these matters, the ratings of the bank facilities of VEL have been placed under 'rating watch with negative implications'.

The ratings assigned to the bank facilities of Vikas Ecotech Limited derive strength from experienced management, improved scale of operation, moderate profitability and capital structure and healthy order book. The rating is however constrained by instances of continuous overdrawn in working capital facility in the past, moderate debt protection metrics, elongated operating cycle, customer concentration risk and raw material price fluctuation risk.

Instances of continuous overdrawing in working capital facility in the past: There were instances of over utilization of CC limit in the past which happened due to crystallization of PCFC (Pre-shipment) limit as there was no export during Covid -19 while the bank debited CC limit to settle outstanding amount in PCFC limit and the same led to continuous overdrawing in CC account . However, as confirmed by the banker, the account has been classified as standard since March, 2022.

Total Debt/GCA improved to 18.18x in FY22 due to cash profits earned in FY22 as against cash losses incurred in FY21.

Elongated operating cycle: The operating cycle of the company remained high at 260 days for FY22 due to high collection and inventory period of the company, however it has improved in FY22 as compared to 542 days in FY21.

Customer Concentration Risk: : Topmost customer of the company contributes for ~45% of the revenue of the company for FY22 which indicates customer concentration risk.

Raw Material price Fluctuation Risk: The company's profitability is susceptible to raw material price fluctuation risk owing to uncertainty of supply-demand in the market. The price of the raw material remain volatile as the same are linked to the prices of crude oil as most of the raw material of the company are directly or indirectly derived from petrochemicals.
